

MEETING INFO

- ❖ Thursday unless otherwise stated. Afternoon meetings 2.15 for 2.30 and evening meetings 7.30 for 7.45.
- ❖ £2 per meeting. £37 annual subscription to NWR national organisation
- ❖ Each meeting is organised and chaired by a member of the group, 'the leader', who may ask for help to research and present the programmed topic.
- ❖ Please let the host know if you will be attending.
- ❖ New Members Contact:
Pat Wright 07904 369054 01798 813198

IF YOU HAVE OFFERED TO LEAD A MEETING, PLEASE ENSURE THAT YOU COVER ALL THE ITEMS IN THE CHECKLIST BELOW.

Before the Meeting:

- Check with Liaison Officer for information, if any, from National Office. Currently Pat
- Ensure your programme item is properly covered; this could involve researching the topic or allocating other researchers, informing members what is needed, liaising with speakers or co-ordinating outside events
- Contact all members (telephone / e-mail) if any last-minute changes

On the Day

- Chair the meeting (keep to time / keep to subject / involve everyone)
- Pass on information relating to the next meeting/meetings and any information from National Office
- Collect Subs and ensure they get to the treasurer.

Registered Charity No 295198

NATIONAL WOMENS REGISTER WEST CHILTINGTON AREA

PROGRAMME Autumn/Winter 2025/26

IF YOU HAVE ANY IDEAS FOR TOPICS OR SPEAKERS THAT YOU WOULD LIKE TO FEATURE IN OUR SUGGESTION LIST FOR THE NEXT PROGRAMME PLEASE SUBMIT ASAP TO PAT, THE PROGRAMME PLANNING LEAD ON THIS PROGRAMME

9 October 2.15 for 2.30

Connections

The NWR theme for 2025. We will look at many of the different aspects that the word 'CONNECTIONS' conjures up.

Host: Sheena

Lead: Pat

23 October 7.30

Mrs Warrens Profession

NT Live production starring Imelda Staunton and her daughter Bessie Carter at the Capital Cinema Horsham. Car sharing organised nearer the time.

Lead: Pat

6 November 2.15 for 2.30

Life Changing!

Who would you like to switch lives with. Do you think this would improve your values your priorities or your mindset.

Host: Elaine

Lead: Jo

Speaker Shelly Hogg from Hounds for Heroes, about the charity and the work that their specially trained assistance dogs do to support physically disabled Armed Forces and Emergency Services personnel with day to day activities.

Lead: Alison

If you were a contestant on the programme which top irritation or worst nightmare would you choose to send to Room 101.

Lead: Anne

This year's fabulous Christmas Show & Raffle in the Village Hall. Details to follow from Patricia

Try your hand at some of the wonderful things our games master extraordinaire has in her store of goodies.

Lead: Andrea

What is/are the most defining moment/s in a century of your choosing. What are their relative strengths and weaknesses.

Lead: Jane

If anyone would like to organise a walk or an event, outside of the programme, you may like to let us know by an email to the whole group

A return visit to the excellent Squire and Horse for a lunch to celebrate the start of another year of all being together. Details to follow.

Lead: Lis S

Teams to compete to identify the correct definitions of obscure words.

Lead: Andrea

An exploration of the some of the iconic bridges of the world

Lead: Trish

A nice bit of real estate? Why is it called Greenland, who has owned it? Where does the USA come into this? What do Greenlanders think

Lead: Liz M

A simple lunch provided by Pat and a chance to finalise the details of our new programme, followed by a discussion of current news stories

Lead: Pat

H₂O is vital for all known forms of life, yet we take it very much for granted. Why we need it and where does it come from?

Lead: Liz